Sunday Morning
Worship Services

Re-Boot, Restart, and Stay Awake

Our first Sunday of the new year breaks with aspirations, serenity, and a listing of the five obstacles to waking up. Morning Has Broken Like the First Morning. We'll close our services with a ritual of letting go.

January 10

Sunday Morning
Worship Services

Learning How To Talk

In this auction winning sermon, we will explore what it means to communicate, how to talk to each other, and consider what is holy about the interaction.

Bylaw Information Session will be held for members in the church office at the close of the second service

January 17

Sunday Morning
Worship Services

Celebrating W.E.B.
Dubois on the
MLK holiday

Our choir and the dance ensemble from McKinley Middle Dance Ensemble join us for a commemorative Sunday, this year featuring a look at W.E.B. Dubois, a renaissance man who turned to poetry, history, sociology, philosophy, and song for understanding the richness and the longings of America.

Bylaw Information Session will be held for members in the church office at the close of the second service.

January 24

Sunday Morning Worship Services
Got Metanoia?

Metanoia means conversion, turning away from something and moving in a different direction. Have you ever had such an experience? Think about that. Let's consider some of the well-known examples this Sunday, but mostly consider how the mind and heart work together and propel us in life.

Bylaw Information Session will be held for members in the church office at the close of the second service.

January 31

Sunday Morning Worship Services
The Sin of Or and the Absolution
through Mardi Gras

As we build up to Mardi Gras, we will explore what it means to live with ambiguity and paradox.

Also, this Sunday: 12:45pm

Congregational Meeting to VOTE on Bylaw changes the 2016 Operating Budget.

CRUMP EXPRESSWAY

-a column from The Reverend Steve J. Crump

Muslims, Islam, & our congregation. Sign-up in January for The Jesus Fatwah, Loving Your Muslim Neighbor as Yourself. This course will run from Feb. 16 –March 15, Tuesday evenings @ 7pm. The multi-media materials and course outline come to us from Living The Questions curricula resources, a publishing house that offers materials on science and religion, the role of women in religion, progressive Christianity, and the historical figure of Jesus. I've invited Muslims as guests for part of this seminar. Here's the course outline:

Feb 16—Islam 101

Feb 23 —Misconceptions and Malarkey

March 1—American Muslim Patriotism

March 8—Making Connection with Baton Rouge Muslims

March 15—Summing Up, what we have learned.

Fatwah is an Arabic word meaning opinion.

Congregation Meets 1/31: Members, check your mail for a copy of Bylaw edits and recommendations coming for a congregational VOTE on January 31, at the Congregational Meeting at 12:45pm during which we will VOTE to adopt the 2016 Budget.

Getting the house in order: January is a good time to review your will and other critical documents. Once things are squared away, you'll have the peace of mind that matters are settled. Remember to include your church in your will. And remember that written designated beneficiaries with financial firms can override the intent of wills. Obviously, you want consistency in all documents, so those "designated beneficiary" forms must be updated as life circumstances change. The UUA recommends: a will, a durable power of attorney, and a health care power of attorney. Let's also add: The Five Wishes, a document that goes into more detail and scenarios than most living wills that I have seen. (pick up The Five Wishes from one of the ministers at church.)

Further considerations? Here's easy language you may wish to add to your will: "I give to the Unitarian Church of Baton Rouge (also known as the Unitarian Fellowship), located in Baton Rouge, tax I.D. number 72-0687743, ___% of my estate or the sum of $___ for its general purposes." A new will may not be needed if a simple codicil is added. If you are interested in receiving a fixed-amount annuity for a transfer of assets of at least $10,000, I can put you in touch with a professional at the Unitarian Universalist Association who can assist you in making a gift that benefits you and our church. This well-known instrument is called a Charitable Gift Annuity.

Guess what Tom Hartmann's book Walking Your Blues Away is about? Subtitled, How to Heal the Mind and Create Emotional Well-Being, (2006), his advice is well-known to many of us who routinize our workouts at the gym, our walks through the neighborhood or runs out on the track. Modest efforts and beginnings pay dividends. You and I know of those who are not physically able to walk, but who move their arms and, nevertheless, stay active. I wish everyone a Happy and Spiritually aware New Year.

Assistant Minister's Column

by The Reverend Nathan A. Ryan

I recently read an article about how welcoming Unitarian Universalism was to the recent gay marriage decision. It was a great article, but it made one very significant and all too common error. The article said that it was no surprise that we are so welcoming to the LGBT community because we had a long history of being politically liberal. Because 2016 will be the political season, it's important to be aware of the distinction between politically liberal and theologically liberal.

It's true that we have conducted marriages for same sex couples for years, but it's not because we are politically liberal. The church has never been nor will it ever be a partisan institution. We welcome LGBT folks because it is what our religion calls us to do, because it is the hospitable thing, and because it is the just thing to do.

Our church makes no decisions based on partisan politics. When a religion becomes partisan, its bells of freedom are silenced, its open communion closed. When religion serves political means, it no longer serves that which is greater than all of us that many call God.

The word to use to describe the Unitarian Universalist church, or any church that is committed to freedom, reason and tolerance, is theologically liberal. A theologically liberal faith admits that there are multiple interpretations of God, that each person's beliefs are valid clues to the great divinity that surrounds us. A theologically liberal church will welcome those on the margins, or who have been demonized by the status quo, because we know that all people have a spark of divinity.

We have politically liberal and politically conservative members in our church. The thing that unites us is a commitment to understanding the holy, to living in right relationship, and to always serving a greater good. We are not the church of any political party nor shall we ever be.

Religious Education News

The Reverend Beth Williams,
Director of Religious Education

New Semester in Religious Education – On January 3, 2016 many of our Religious Education classes for children and youth will begin new curricula for the winter/spring semester. These curricula are described below.

Little Sundays of Surprises (Ages 3-K, 9:30 am) Our smallest children in our early class continue with Chalice Children. This curriculum nurtures our young children's early connection to our Unitarian Universalist community.

Big Sundays of Surprises (Grades 1-6, 9:30 am) Our older class at 9:30 will continue with the Timeless Themes: Stories from the Hebrew and Christian Bibles program.

Sparks Preschool (Ages 3-4, 11:15 am) – Our youngest class at 11:15 am continues with the curriculum Story Time, a curriculum based on children's literature.

Flames (Grades K-1, 11:15 am) – The Flames class begins a new Tapestry of Faith curriculum, World of Wonder. This program delves deep into our Unitarian Universalist seventh Principle. It instills respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part, and appreciation of its beauty, excitement, and mystery. It is founded on the premise that direct experience in nature is essential to children's physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual development.

Blazes (Grades 2-5, 11:15 am) – The Blazes class begins a new Tapestry of Faith curriculum, Signs of Our Faith: Being UU Everyday. This curriculum presents fourteen traits or values that most Unitarian Universalist love, including the quest for knowledge, reverence for life, supporting one another on our faith journeys, and public witness. Children examine how their lives do and can exhibit these traits and values, and come to understand that their faith is a living faith whose histories and teachings are fortifications for living faithfully in a complex world.

Questioners Middle Youth (Grades 6-7, 11:15 am) – The Questioners class begins a new Tapestry of Faith curriculum: Heeding the Call: Qualities of a Justice Maker. Youth are encouraged to view themselves as agents of change in the world as they develop qualities crucial to justice work. They reflect on their own lives while making connections to the lives lived by others, building self-awareness while growing as leaders.

Passages (Grades 8-9, 11:15 am) - The Passages Class continues with the Coming of Age program. This program addresses changes in youth's spiritual and faith development, and encourages them to grow more confident in their beliefs and deeper in their Unitarian Universalist faith.

Seekers Senior Youth (Grades 10-12, 11:15 am) – Our oldest class at 11:15 has chosen a new curriculum for the winter/spring, Principled Music uses popular music from the 1960s through the present a wide variety of social justice topics. After listening to selected songs on a topic, the class uses the lyrics of the songs as a launching point. Students are encouraged to bring their own examples of songs on the social justice topic under discussion.

Teaching In the Winter/Spring Religious Education Semester – we have a small but mighty roster of teachers and advisers for religious education in our second semester, but we need more help. Are you a UCBR member who might add a fresh perspective to a teaching team this semester? Please contact Beth Williams at education@unitarianchurchbr.com or 225-400-1458.

HoUuston Rally 2016: Online registration is open for the “Dr. Seuss” Rally for Senior Youth, January 15-17, 2016 (MLK weekend) at Bay Area UU Church in Houston, TX. Online registration is available at <http://houstonrally.ddns.net/>

Roots and Wings Program – It is not too late to register your 2nd or 3rd grader for the Roots and Wings Program beginning Sunday, January 3, 1pm to 3 pm. 2016. This program is designed to engage Unitarian Universalist 2nd and 3rd graders at the developmental stage often called the “age of reason.” Many of our children's peers participate in ceremonial religious programs like First Communion at about this age. Our Unitarian Universalist children will benefit from this parallel but UU-unique experience of ritual, ceremony, and affirmation. All children who are in 2nd or 3rd grade, and are registered in our Religious Education program for this year, are eligible for Roots and Wings. Contact Beth Williams at 225-400-1458 or education@unitarianchurchbr.com to register.

Music Updates

Leah Hartman, Music Program Director
Trey Davis, Choral Director

Happy new year! The adult choir will return on January 17 to sing on Martin Luther King Jr. Sunday. This beautiful anthem is an arrangement of the U2 song MLK. Marie Flowers will be the soloist on this moving piece inspired by the life and death of Dr. King. Choir will also sing on January 31, with some fun and lighthearted music to get us ready for Mardi Gras.

We are always looking for singers to join us on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 pm. We sing approximately two Sundays per month. Please contact choir director Trey Davis at choral@unitarianchurchbr.com with any questions, or to sign up.

If you have a special occasion to commemorate or a loved one to acknowledge, consider donating flowers for Sunday services. There are open dates beginning in February. You can sign up on Sundays in the fellowship hall.

Social Justice

Bobby Thompson, Director of Social Justice

Once again we had another very successful Kids Cafe. Thanks to all that bought gifts and/or contributed to the party. A special thanks to Jane Webb. Jane is a relatively new member to the church and to the Social Justice Team. She organized and ran the collection of toys and money. Thanks to Dottie Kelly who coordinates everything with the Interfaith Federation to bring Holiday cheer to the kids of Cadillac Park.

Our shared offering for January will go to: VIPS Volunteers in Public Schools – W.C. Montgomery Center 4070 Tunica St. #7 Baton Rouge, La. 70805. Everybody Reads© provides individualized reading assistance for first-, second- and third-grade students who read below grade level. VIPS recruits, orients, and places volunteer Reading Friends in public schools to share the joy of reading and improve reading skills

In December our own Dan Collins gave a briefing on an issue of environmental importance to us all and personal importance to him (he was about to go to court against the state as a whistle-blower and won). If you have an issue you think the congregation might want to hear more about, please let us know.

We sent three of our members to the three day training of Together Baton Rouge, David Lindenfeld, Jane Webb and Wade Adams. Wade also brought his son Chris Adams, who grew up in this church and is active in social justice work in Lafayette.

Looking back over the last year, we have been very active. We participated in "Beyond Bricks EBR" a community discussion for a positive movement to recharge public schools. We were very active with Together Baton Rouge, starting with a statewide rally to prepare for the upcoming state's 2015 legislative session. We began a successful Beloved Conversations: Meditations on Race and Ethnicity. We organized a vigil for Justice for Victor White III in New Iberia. Many of our church members carpooled to New Iberia. We would return to New Iberia a few months later for a march. We hosted a poetry workshop in honor of Victor White III. We hosted Emrys "Walt" Stanton who was engaged with immigrant justice movements in southern Arizona.

At General Assembly this summer, the UUA adopted a Statement of Conscience on Reproductive Justice (RJ). "As Unitarian Universalists, we embrace the reproductive justice framework, which espouses the human right to have children, not to have children, to parent the children one has in healthy environments and to safeguard bodily autonomy and to express one's sexuality freely." Last summer one of our guest ministers, Darcy Roake, preached on RJ. Early in the new-year the Social Justice Team will present the UUA's Reproductive Justice curriculum for congregations. This is a six-session curriculum and open to all interested. We plan to start this in January. Questions? Please contact Holley Haymaker at hgalland@aol.com.

Together Baton Rouge had a citywide assembly to kick off and re energize to continue the work of making our community better. We were successful stopping the formation of the city of St. George through our connection with Better Together. Many of us went door to door. Tara Hebert led the effort to collect coats for those in need. Sylvia Martinez put together a team to participate in the Hunger Walk sponsored by the Interfaith Federation. We continue to sponsor and provide space for PFLAG.

We gave financial support through our shared offering to local non profits and community organizations, such as, Dialogue on Race, Planned Parenthood Gulf Coast, Family Road, Forward Arts, St. Paul Adult Learning Center, STAR – Sexual Trauma & Response, Iris Domestic Violence Intervention Center, Capital Area Alliance for the Homeless, Baton Rouge Area Alcohol and Drug Center BRAADC, Backyard Bikes, Interfaith Federation, and the Greater Baton Rouge Food Bank.

Our next SJ meeting will be held on January 10th after church. Remember, our meetings are open to all interested members and guests.

OUTREACH

Becky Cureau, Director of Outreach

Copies of Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption, the UU "Common Read" for 2015-2016, are available at the Book Table. Our church will participate along with other UU congregations in reading Bryan Stevenson's thought-provoking book which explores ethical, moral, and spiritual questions surrounding incarceration, and the horrors faced by people on the margins of mainstream society when they come in contact with the systems built to respond to criminal or antisocial behavior. Discussion sessions will take place in late January and February on dates to be announced in weekly announcements.

Church member Wayne Parker is the host of "A Pause for Thought," which airs from 5:00 - 5:30 pm Wednesdays on Baton Rouge Community Radio WHYR-LP, 96.9 FM. The live show invites listeners to call in with questions, comments, and suggestions for the following week's topics.

Many thanks for your generous donations of staple food items to the Food Cart for Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday meals for recipients of the Greater Baton Rouge Food Bank. The Food Cart maintains its regular place in the Breezeway for our ongoing contributions to those in need in our community

Parking Lot Update:

The final construction drawings and 98 page bid document have been scrutinized, revised, finalized and approved. The documents will be submitted to several potential contractors for bid solicitation.

President's Column

Melanie Mayeaux, Board President

The young days of a new year always bring with them an optimistic promise of a new beginning. But they also bring the opportunity to reflect on the experiences and events that shaped the setting year. Although we have several months left in the 15-16 Board year there is still much to reflect on from 2015. Since May, your Board has: conducted a fall congregational meeting during which members voted to support the mission and vision reflected in the 2016 preliminary budget; hosted a town hall meeting where we explored how our church lives and reflects the first principle; adopted a Board Policy Manual; convened the Finance, Special Funds Committee, and Personnel committees; and with the help of the Governance Task Force, drafted by-laws changes that will be presented to the congregation for approval. But perhaps our most important accomplishment was the crafting and acceptance of the year's board covenant because this shared agreement of how we work together grounds all we do. It states:

"We the board members of the Unitarian Church of Baton Congregation, covenant to serve the congregation's mission and vision and to serve the members of the congregation. We shall create an atmosphere of compassionate candor by presuming good faith, actively listening, not interrupting, and staying in relationship with one another, even when in conflict. We shall respect our time together by honoring our commitment, being prepared for meetings, and by focusing on stated agenda items.

We will use consensus as the preferable decision-making process. However, in the course of honest deliberation, disagreements may occur. During these times, we will honor all points of view by staying in conversation until all aspects of an issue have been voiced and heard. When the board makes a final decision on a matter, we shall speak with respect of the decision and the board's authority to make it. We will strive to stay in covenant, but shall work to restore right relations if the covenant is broken. "

So, 2015 was a busy and productive time for your board. We now turn our attention to the coming months, and they will no doubt be just as busy. There will be a congregational meeting on January 31, 2016 during which the final budget will be presented, there will be a spring town hall meeting when we will have the opportunity to meet in small groups to discuss an "open question". I and the board look forward to serving the members of this congregation in 2016.

Becky Cureau, Communications Chair

In its final meeting of 2015 the Great Expectations Steering Team heard an update from Team Chair Neal Stoltzfus and Team member Bill Rountree on their meeting with our architects. Major discussions centered on repositioning of light poles and trees to provide maximum lighting to the parking areas. With those and draining issues resolved, the GES Team did a final review of construction drawings, and gave approval for Reich Associates to proceed with solicitation of bids, which went out in December.

At an early meeting in January the GES Team will review bids submitted by the architects and select a bid within our budget. Our expectation is that a start date for beginning construction will be announced early in the new-year. Our confident new-year prediction is that we will see the completion of our parking lot and exterior projects within the foreseeable future, with a grand celebration of the accomplishment of this important goal of our Great Expectations in 2016.

CATS Comes To Our Church

Why are we seeing an update on CATS (Capital Area Transit System) here? Because CATS can now help provide needed Connections for our church.

The corner of Tara Blvd. is on a major bus route #18 and connects LSU to Cortana Mall via Corporate Blvd. Cortana Mall is a major hub in the system and thus with a transfer, creates the ability to go in all directions of our city.

Example: On Sunday, you can board a bus from Cortana to the general southwest direction every hour which stops at the Connell Park side of Goodwood & Tara about 8:37am and though the evening. Coming from the LSU area going to the Cortana hub, the bus stops on the hour from early until late on our side of the street at the Tara corner.

Their web site www.brcats.com is easy to navigate. By entering where you want to go to and from, the computer will route it for you to be viewed or printed. Helpful employees at 225-389-8282 can also give you such information. There is even an APP for mobile phones to assist the traveler.

Fares are $2 per trip, including transfer. A variety of passes are available which could reduce the per ride cost for the regular rider.

Although this information was researched for the benefit of those who have no auto, it could be helpful to some drivers when our parking lot is under construction.

Dottie Kelly, Connections Director
